

Fun For All at Fanling's Fan Village
The Link Hong Kong Open 2025 is more than a golf tournament – it's a celebration of culture and community!

[Oct 27th 2025: Hong Kong] As the players battle for glory and coveted spots in the Masters and Open, there will be a different kind of excitement off the golf course at the Link Hong Kong Open 2025.

Located by the first tee at Hong Kong Golf Club in Fanling, the Fan Village opens from 7am to 6pm and offers a fun day out with interactive games, live performances and roving acts. The organisers have spared no effort to curate a host of activities to ensure that everyone – from energetic toddlers to young-at-heart seniors – has a good time while taking a break from watching the world-class golf.

Food is a central part of the Link Hong Kong Open 2025 experience, with an enticing array of delicious bites and refreshments available throughout the day. Adults looking for a beverage with a 'kick' can participate in a fun golf challenge at the Explore Moutai booth – and win a Moutai Cocktail!

Taking place from October 30 to November 2, the Link Hong Kong Open 2025 is more than a golf tournament; it's a celebration of all that is good and great about Hong Kong!

Getting to Fanling is easy, thanks to free shuttle buses that run daily from IFC Mall, Mong Kok, and Sheung Shui MTR (see schedule below). Those who drive will enjoy free on-site parking at the club.

Entry is free for all on Thursday and Friday, while spectators aged 18 and under enjoy free entry over the weekend as well.
